WHO WE ARE

MSCT — Mazi Saheli Charitable Trust

MSCT (Mazi Saheli Charitable Trust) is a dedicated non-profit organisation working with diverse communities — including high-risk and bridge populations — across six districts of Maharashtra: Thane, Palghar, Ratnagiri, Raigad, Satara, and Osmanabad.

We believe that every person, regardless of where they are born or what community they belong to, deserves equal access to healthcare, education, livelihood, and dignity. Our grassroots-first approach means we work alongside communities — not just for them.

From running health camps in remote tribal hamlets to organising financial literacy sessions for rural women, every programme is designed to create lasting, systemic change rather than short-term relief.

WHAT GUIDES US

Our Core Values

Grassroots First
We work from within communities — not from the outside. Every programme is co-designed with the people it serves, ensuring relevance and ownership.

Gender Justice
Women and girls are not just beneficiaries — they are agents of change. We actively cultivate leadership and advocate for equal rights at every level.

Accountability
Every rupee of donor funding is tracked and reported. Transparent governance and measurable outcomes are non-negotiable commitments.

Sustainability
We build solutions that outlast our presence. From water harvesting to eco-tourism, we invest in long-term resilience — not dependency.
